Q: What were the strengths of this course and/or this instructor?

- 1
- He's the best
- 2
- As I wrote for CS5010, the instructor can expand many different knowledge
- 3
- In the recitation, Professor John will do intensive coding of practical, interesting projects.
- 4
- High participation.
- 5
- Extremely enthusiastic and always pushes the students to learn more. Can explain complex concepts in simple terms with lots of real-world examples.
- 6
- Prof. John promotes using Slack to interact, and his quick responses help us with homework and projects. He makes sure everyone understands the concepts taught in class.
- 7
- Great passion, excellent speaker, always trying to catch students' attention.
- 8
- Passion, creativity.

Q: What could the instructor do to make this course better?

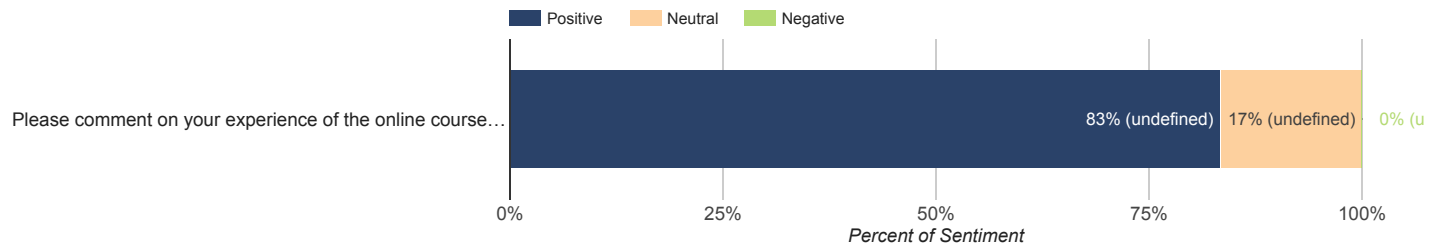

- 1
- NA
- 2
- Now is good.
- 3
- After midterm, some topics are not touched detailedly enough (like async/sync, web worker, TDD). I can understand the what they are and how they work through examples, but I also expect how to use these concepts in an actual project.
- 4
- Clearer syllabus.
- 5
- Maybe include some pre-recorded tutorials before classes.
- 6
- Nothing at all. Loved learning React with Prof. John
- 7
- I think sometimes we spent too much time on some basic concepts like declarative and imperative programming, although it could be a sad news that not everyone understand that concept after a long time of explanation :(Maybe we could continue with other concepts and talk about it later in office hours or next class.
- 8
- ORGANIZE THE HOMEWORK RUBRIC ONTIME!

Q: Please expand on the instructor's strengths and/or areas for improvement in facilitating inclusive learning.

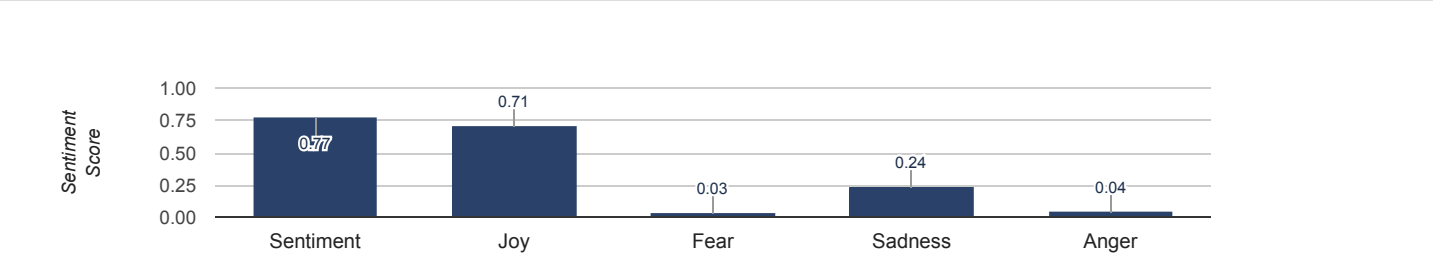

- 1
- His profound knowledge in the subject
- 2
- Maybe give student more time to try by themselves
- 3
- NaN.
- 4
- Will always explain a previously taught topic again if the students have doubts or questions.
- 5
- His participation criteria is excellent and support inclusive learning. He makes sure everyone understands the concepts taught in class
- 6
- Professor John is always looking for new coding techniques, and I really enjoy exploring something new with him.
- 7
- Enjoyed the bittersweet of lottery part, making us nervous but concentrated. Sometimes tooooo late for updating the HW rubrics, forcing us to change what we have already implemented.
